Louisville Trade Gossip.

Trade is very quiet, and the market has been exceedingly dull during the past week.
Tobacco quiet. The offerings good, but the sales were few. Prices about the same as last reported.
The stock market was fair. About 75 or 100 head of horses were sold at auction last week. Prices ranging from $35 to $100. Only a few head of mules sold, bringing from $30 to $125. The demand was good with but few on the market.
Cattle scarce and no demand. Prices from $1.50 to $2 for good and $3 to $4 for scrub.
Poultry—spring chickens brought from $1.50 to $2; old ones from $2 to $2.50 with no demand.
Butter dull from 9 to 10c. Eggs 10 to 11 cents.
The vegetable market was pretty well filled up, with the exception of potatoes. New potatoes bring from $5.50 to $6.50. Cabbage—Early York, from $1.25 to $1.75 per barrel. Peas from $4 to $17.50 per barrel.
Corn brought from 48 to 50 cents. Oats from 50 to 52 cents.
Wheat from $1.50 to $1.76.
Wool, in the grease, 18 to 20 cents; tub washed, 30 to 32 cents.
Strawberries have been plenty, bringing $2 to $3 per stand.
Green apples are coming in at 75 cents to $1.75 per bushel.
Cherries bring from $3 to $5 per stand. Hops brought good prices this week, but there were few in the market, and the demand was not good. Prices ranged from $1 to $1.50, an advance of from $1 to $1.25 over last week.
Good sheep are selling at 5 to 4 cents, and the market dull at that. LAMBS.

A Bare Combination.

W. A. Loyd of Belleville, Hancock county, was in to see us yesterday. He is agent for "The Signal Service Barometer," or Storm Glass and Thermometer combined. In addition to giving the exact condition of the weather as to heat or cold, it also indicates accurately, rain, storm, high winds, clear weather, and, in fact, is a forerunner of the condition of the weather that is to follow, hours in advance. Mr. Loyd sells them at the low price of $2.00 each, and will make a canvass of the whole country about here, and your change really by the time he comes to see you, as it is an instrument that every household should possess, and when he comes around to sell you the barometer do not forget that there is one already secured for every family in this river country, and if you have not already secured it you can secure it of Mr. Loyd, of course that other necessity is the Hartford Herald. Subscribe to it and be happy.

The Very Best of Flour at $4.00 per barrel.

Hon. J. M. Capps, a thoroughbred gentleman well known to nearly everyone in this section of the country, is one of the most expert unbroken men we have heard of since the days of long ago. His latest extraordinary feat in this line was performed one day last week. Jim selected for his targets three of his neighbors horses, and brought his mountain-horn, well charged, upon them. He displayed great skill, never missing a shot. The animals belonged to Mr. Peyton Hamilton, Mrs. Louisa Hamilton, and Mr. Thos. L. McKiff, whom we understand, say they think Jim will have to come to the front with the worth of his animals, or spend a few days in the brick building erected on the square, and we believe they are not joking, either.

Wallace Hall and Brother, of Lincoln, Illinois, are certainly the most energetic, wide-awake young men ever brought up about the town of Hartford, and are models for our young men to pattern after.

Not content with publishing one of the latest, newest papers in the northwest, they have recently commenced the publication of a German paper. It is a weekly thirty-two column, size of our and some subscription price. We have just finished reading number 1, and pronounce it a first class journal. The cognomen is "Logans County Volksblatt." Boys say the bright star of prosperity light up your pathway in this your new undertaking.

We notice some splendid corn on the farm of Mrs. Peyton.

We were sorry to see Mr. Frank Peyton sitting on the fence nursing a very painful felon. We thought at first he was waiting to "see his pass," but he was more profitably engaged, from the number of plows running and his supervision. Frank says, though his corn is splendid, it is far behind what he can show in the rich creek bottoms.

Still They Came

Nice and fresh—One thousand leaders, at FOU'S.

We had a pleasant visit yesterday from Mr. E. H. Coleman, one of the oldest citizens of Ohio county.

Uncle Elsie has been well known all over the Green river country for fifty years or more. He is a warm, earnest advocate of our enterprise, and wishes us success in our undertaking. We wish some of our young citizens were as zealous friends of an enterprise, fraught with so much good to the county as the publication of a good weekly paper.

There is no mistake but that a man will endanger himself some times. It was the case with us last Friday morning. The temptation was too great for us to overcome, and the result was that we couldn't keep from looking, although we were momentarily expecting some one to sever our head from our shoulders with a brickbat. She displayed a noble pair, which were touched off to some extent by the clean, white—hold up, we won't tell it to her.

Klein & Bro. at $12.50 with the following worth this wash boiler, one stew pan, one coffee boiler, one teakettle, three sheet iron pans, two pots, two skillets, two griddles, one iron heater, one gridiron, two pot covers, one cover litter, two joints of pipe and one elbow.

Clarance Hardwick, Esq., our young and gentlemanly deputy Circuit Clerk, left last Wednesday to visit relatives in Lincoln, Illinois. We wish him a pleasant trip.

A Little step daughter of Mr. Wesley M. Warden, living near Centertown, who has been afflicted for several years with spinal disease, had a very painful surgical operation performed upon her last week, by Dr. Miller and Pendleton. We are glad to learn the little sufferer is improving. She and her mother are stopping at Mr. Jesse Potter's.

The parents of children belonging to the different Sunday-schools that expect to participate in the Sabbath-school picnic near Mr. Remus Gibson's on the 4th of July next, are requested to bring an abundance of provisions, as a large number of visitors will be present, and it will be important to have a sufficient of food for all.

W. W. COOK.

E. Small, the price of dry goods merchant of the Green river country, has been in Louisville for several days past, and will, before returning, the largest stock of goods ever seen in Hartford.

The largest drove of sheep we have seen in a long while, being something less than a quarter of a mile in length, were driven through town last Friday.

Harry P. Taylor, a highly esteemed young friend of ours, who has been at Russellville for the past five months attending school, returned to his home in this place last Friday.

W. L. ROWE is just receiving a fresh lot of the very best candies, oranges lemons, &c.

Dr. J. M. Heavron, of Rosine, Kentucky, was at the Hartford House, under treatment of Dr. Pendleton last week. We are glad to learn that he is improving.

The members of the order of Good Templars, of this place, were invited over last Thursday night to Messrs. Holston & Dillman's ice cream saloon, and treated by the gentlemenly proprietors to ice cream and lemonade. We return thanks to you, gentlemen, in behalf of the ladies and gentlemen.

A large lot of Bacon and Corned Lard for sale cheap, at D. A. GOODMAN'S.

Mr. Henry Griffin and wife spent a few days in the country at the hospitable home of Mr. E. H. Hart, last week.

For late files of New Orleans papers, Mr. A. C. Ellis will please accept our thanks.

Messrs. A. C. Ellis and V. W. Peyton have just returned from New Orleans, whither they went with stove boats. They report a pleasant, as well as profitable trip.

Hot for the barbecue at Hines' Mill next Saturday.

All who want to have a pleasant time should not fail to attend.

The Ohio county teachers' institute will be held in Hartford commencing Monday July 23, and continue four days. Several educators from Louisville and other places are expected to attend.

Prince Albert Frecks, Cut long and stylish, in diagonals and Winsted—English suitings, something new—in fact the best variety in Louisville, at the great clothing house of J. Winter & Co., and sold, too, at a reasonable price. You will be sure of a bargain there.

Just received, one car load best Kanawha salt, 280 pound barrels, at

It is astonishing to see the agility displayed by some of the Hartford gals—(guess we'll have to say boys or kids somebody), as they pick from the heavy laden boughs the luscious services and cherries.

Prof. Malcolm McIntyre's school closed last Friday evening, and the numerous students in attendance from abroad have taken their departure, leaving several vacancies in high social circles.

Passenger Trains on the Paducah and Elizabethtown Railroad will run on Sundays. This is a great convenience to the traveling public.

Malcolm McIntyre, A. B., left yesterday morning for Owensboro, where he will remain during vacation. He will return the latter part of the summer, when he will resume his school again, which will commence on the 3rd day of September. See his advertisement.

Just received at E. T. Williams' large supply of New Orleans Sugar and molasses, also a full supply of refined sugar and the best grades coffee.

V. B. Morton, living near Ceralvo, this county, has a bunch of English Rock Wheat growing in his wheat field that measures six feet and five inches high, and is heavily headed. Of course the field over will not average with this, but it is all very good.
